ABOUT THE COVER . . .

The cover on today's program features a sideline view of the action taking place on the field. In the football player's eyes is reflected a big tackle rushing the quarterback in an attempt to prevent a pass from being thrown. Most football players find the going tougher on the sidelines. They would much prefer to be "where the action is" and that's on the field.

Today's Game

Tigers Begin Title Quest

The Ichabods of Washburn University invade Lewis Field Stadium this afternoon to provide the first conference competition for the Tigers.

Washburn, 1-4-0 on the season, defeated Southern Colorado 21-13 last week, posting its first win of the season. The Ichabods have been improving as the season progresses and should give the Tigers some rough competition.

Coach Ed Linta, in his second year as head coach, has 23 lettermen, 10 of which are sophomores.

Outstanding players on the Washburn squad include: quarterback J. D. Cleavinger, fullback Mickey Romano, end Dan Dreiling, guard Chuck Coppola and tackle Dode Lesser.

The Ichabods are second in total offense in the CIC with 1,358 yards. They have the number-one pass receiver in the conference in Dreiling. He has caught five passes for 106 yards.

The Tigers, 3-1-0 on the season, are leading the CIC conference in three statistical categories: rushing offense, total offense and total defense.

The Tigers are led statistically by Little All-American honorable mention quarterback Bob Johnson and All-CIC fullback Rich Dreiling.

Johnson leads the CIC in individual total offense with 507 yards and is second in individual rushing with 319 yards. Dreiling leads in individual rushing with 396 yards and is second to Johnson in total offense with his 396 yards. He also leads the CIC in scoring with 24 points.

The Tigers will be without the services of several of their top players today but will start essentially the same units they have used in the last few games.

Missing today's game will be James Jones, senior fullback, Randy Randle, sophomore defensive end and Ken Albers, junior end.

Returning to limited action will be defensive end John Mastin, offensive guard Larry Noffsinger and halfback Dave Wright.

One Year Ago ...

One year ago, Fort Hays State coasted to a 25-0 win over the Ichabods to record its first conference win of the season. Fine passing by quarterback Bob Johnson to end Ron Morel proved to be the downfall for Washburn. Johnson connected on three scoring pass plays to Morel and added the final tally on a three-yard run, all in the first half. Two records were broken in the game. One of the records was touchdowns for one game (three), and the other was touchdown passes received in one game (also three). Washburn, suffering from injuries to some of their top players, couldn't get a drive going. The Ichabods lead the series of 31 games between the two schools, having won 20, compared to eight for the Tigers, and three ties.

Next Week ...

Next week, the Tigers travel to Emporia to take on the Hornets of Emporia State. It will be the Tigers' second conference game. The Hornets, 1-3-0 on the season, have not played a conference game this season. They did play a pre-season contest against Washburn, which E-State won 14-0. Much improved over last year, the Hornets will be tough on their home field and will be out to avenge a 42-7 loss to the Tigers last year at Hays. In the 39 years of competition between these two schools, the Hornets have won 24 games, lost 13 to the Tigers and two have ended in ties.

Paul 'Busch' Gross Award

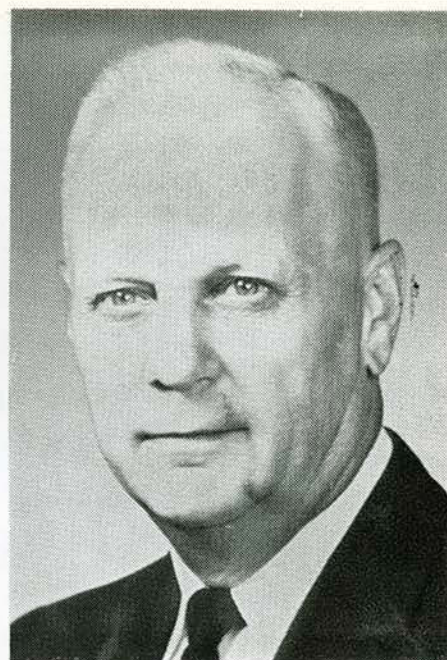

It is in recognition of his lifetime of service to Fort Hays State College that the Busch Gross Award is given annually at the Homecoming football game.

Paul (Busch) Gross, a native of Hays, served as a Tiger athlete from 1917 through 1921, was head FHS basketball coach from 1930 through 1946 and was athletic director from 1930 until his death in December, 1964.

The Gross Award honors the outstanding senior athlete of the past school year, with a committee making the selection on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship and athletic achievement. The award today will be announced before the opening kickoff, with Harold Stones, Alumni Assn. executive secretary, making the presentation.

Past winners and the sports in which they competed:

- 1957 Ron Miller, Elmo, football
- 1958 Dan Johnson, Hays, football and track
- 1959 Gary Casey, Hutchinson, basketball and track
- 1960 Darrell Hildebrand, Hill City, football and track
- 1961 Lyle Wingate, Pretty Prairie, basketball and track
- 1962 Duplicate awards, Dean Larson, Ada, basketball, and Kent Bauer, Pawnee Rock, track
- 1963 Herb Stange, Sterling, basketball
- 1964 Sam McDowell, Smith Center, basketball
- 1965 Clark Engel, Abilene, football and track

Paul (Busch) Gross
1895-1964

Busch was truly "Mr. Athletics" at Fort Hays State. He devoted virtually his entire life to the college and its athletic department, serving first as an athlete then as a coach and athletic director.

Busch quarterbacked the only unbeaten, untied football team in the school's history in 1917. He was a veteran of WW I, received his undergraduate degree in 1922, and taught and coached on the high school level for eight years.

Following many years of successful coaching at FHS, Busch was named to the NAIA Helms Foundation Hall of Fame as a basketball coach in 1957. In 14 years of basketball coaching, Gross's teams won 150 games and lost only 88.

Coach McConnell

Head football coach Wayne J. McConnell, in his third decade of coaching, is in his 11th season at Fort Hays State this fall.

Prior to coming to FHS, he coached for six years at College of Emporia, where his teams compiled a record of 39 victories, 12 losses and a single tie. His C of E teams were undefeated in regular season play in 1951, 1953, 1954 and 1955, and McConnell was named Little All-American Coach of the Year by the Rockne Foundation in 1953.

At FHS, his ten teams have compiled a record of 37 victories, 48 losses and four ties. His 1962 team was his most successful, charting a 6-2-1 mark. His 1957, 1958 and 1961 teams finished right on the .500 mark, the record in 1964 was 5-4 and last year's mark was 6-3.

Mac earned his bachelor's degree at Washburn University in 1934 and was a social welfare worker in Topeka until 1941, when he entered the Army for two years.

Following the service stint, he taught and coached in high schools at Effingham (three years), Gaylord (one year), Downs (two years) and Manhattan (one year) before moving to C of E. His coaching record after 23 seasons stands at 106 victories, 72 defeats and seven ties.

Wayne earned his master's at Emporia State in 1954 and is an associate professor of physical education on the FHS faculty.

COLLEGE ANTHEM

On the plains of Western Kansas
Stands a school we all love well.
'Twas built by the toil of our fathers;
To its glory our voices swell.

Chorus.

Hail to old Fort Hays State!
Let your voices ring.
Praise for the Black and Gold
We will ever sing.
Long may our valor last
Through the future days,
Hon'ring and praising
Dear Fort Hays.

In the years that lie before us
We foresee our land's many needs.
Through the efforts of new generations,
We'll go on to more noble deeds.

HAVE A DATE EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT

You'll finally be able to afford to, if you get a Honda. Trade in your gas-eater for a thrifty Honda 50. Up to 200 miles per gallon, and at least that many laughs. Maybe more.

Hondas are just the ticket for campus traffic and campus parking, and you'll notice a big difference in your pocket-book, too. It'll bulge for a change.

And so will your date book.

Washburn University is a municipal university located in Topeka.

The campus, encompassing 160 acres, is located in the heart of Topeka and was in direct line of the tornado that ravaged Topeka this past June 8. The tornado destroyed nine buildings, damaged 14 others, and the campus lost more than 500 trees.

But Washburn University, city and county officials and many other followers of the Ichabods said the campus would be rebuilt. Today, the campus is being restored.

Portable classrooms have been erected. The residence halls have been restored. The new Student Union and an addition to Morgan Hall are nearly completed and a temporary building for women's physical education classes is under construction.

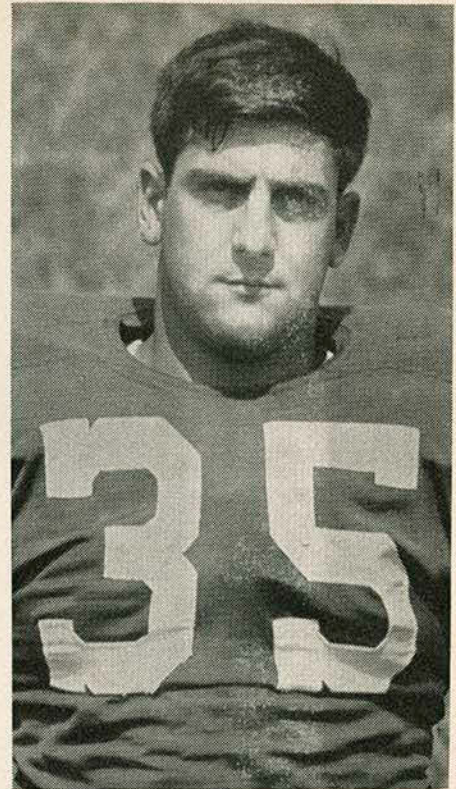

Washburn University is a member of the Central Intercollegiate Conference. The Ichabods were a member of the founding group in 1928. In 1933, Washburn withdrew from the conference, then rejoined in 1940.

WU has won the conference football crown twice and tied for it four times. The latest title for the Ichabods came in 1964.

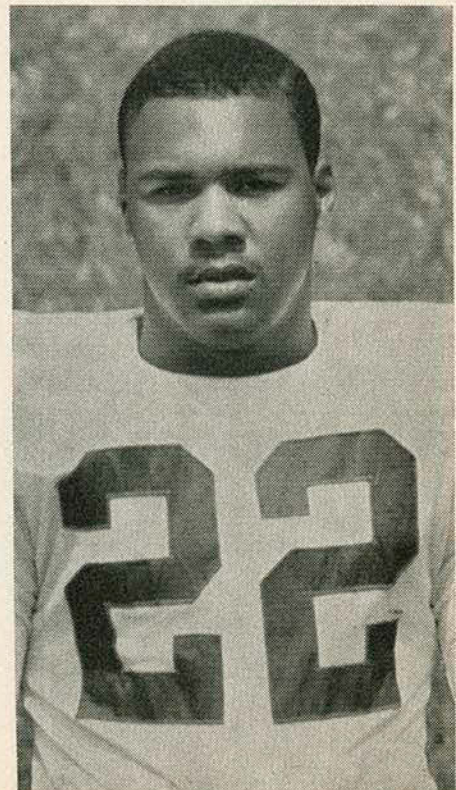

Washburn University athletic squads are nicknamed the "Ichabods" as the result of a contribution made to the Kansas school by Deacon Ichabod Washburn of Worcester, Mass., in 1868. The university then changed its name to Washburn and the name "Ichabod" caught on with the student body.

The head football coach at WU is Ed Linta. A K-State graduate, Linta is in his second year at the Ichabod helm. Assisting Linta are Tim Saylor, line coach; Larry Elliott, backfield coach; and Jack Clanton, graduate assistant.

Directing the athletic program at WU is Michael Sarkesian, a native of Rhode Island. The president of Washburn University is Dr. John W. Henderson.

MICKEY ROMANO . . . 6-0, 205, Sr., Tucson, Ariz. Two-year letterman. Fine fullback for the Ichabods.

STEVE ALSTON . . . 5-9, 175, Fr., Midland, Penn. Tabbed by Ichabod followers as a potentially fine halfback.
